BLOOMINGTON — Illinois Wesleyan University is celebrating "100 Years of Homecoming" with a series of activities Friday through Sunday, including back-to-college classes, music, theater, campus tours, tailgating and, of course. In addition to Doran and Olaosebikan, other alumni to be honored are John and Pat Jordan, who received this year’s Loyalty Award. The award recognizes their service and financial contributions to IWU. John Jordan, a 1957 graduate, joined the IWU board of trustees in 1992. He and Pat, Class of 1959, served as emcees for the Golden Titans homecoming dinner last year and have been loyal supporters of IWU. Subscribe to Daily Headlines. Sign up!
